

DOOZER MCDOOZE

“The underground festival hero Doozer McDooze” - UK Festival Guides.

“Doozer McDooze wears his heart on his sleeve, places his tongue in his cheek and opens his emotions to the listener. Doozer’s Essex origins mean comparisons with Billy Bragg are inevitable. Thrumming his guitar with a rhythmic energy that demonstrates little concern for the guitar’s safety and total commitment to the music; Doozer McDooze reveals the fragility at the heart of his world view. There is an impressive energy on Not Going Back To That: direct, open and in your face.” - RnR Magazine

My last album “Not Going Back To That” was given 5/5 in RnR Magazine and is available to listen to for free here:
